Jefferson Backroads is a positive and happy little monthly PAPER & WEB publication sharing valuable local business information along with our regional history & upcoming events happening here in the very Heart of The State of Jefferson Region. Starting up in April 2010, Jefferson Backroads has been growing for 8 solid years now... and we PREDICT we will be chugging ahead long into the future!! Choo Choooo!!

We take great pride in making it possible for our locals - as well as visitors traveling through - to see the MANY unique Mom and Pop businesses and the amazing products and services we all provide in our own rugged and beautiful piece of Old School, Small Town America. We feature delightful stories written by local area authors spotlighting our amazing businesses and recreational opportunities, stories on the history of our area's towns, as well as stories about our many small town community events.

Our FREE monthly publications share THE ADVENTURE SIDE of this incredible Region and are distributed throughout Siskiyou County and in select spots of Extreme Northern California and Southern Oregon.

Even though many readers find our paper publications to read every month in our local restaurants and shoppes, our Website and Facebook page make it possible for all our publications to be viewed electronically anywhere on the planet from cell phones, tablets and computers 24/7/365.

Advertising with us makes it possible for our beloved local community members as well as our happy tourists & subscribers to find your amazing business and shop with you!! Our readers tell us constantly how valuable a resource Jefferson Backroads Publication is when they are searching for quality local business products & services and for finding out what is going on here and around the Region!

Please call or email us today and let us know how we can be of USEFUL service to you . . .
